RE: Eloise Moore vs. City of Shreveport, et al
Suit #575,665 -B; 1st Judicial District Court; Caddo Parish, Louisiana

Dear Ladies and/or Gentlemen:

The law firm of Abrams & Lafargue represents the City of Shreveport, Sportran and Ozzie Dyas in the above-captioned proceedings. Eloise P. Moore has filed a lawsuit against our clients and your records may be pertinent to the pending litigation; for that reason, my clients would like to obtain copies of all records in your possession pertaining to Eloise P. Moore.

We have caused a subpoena to be issued to you by the 1st Judicial District Court, directing the production of these records on Wednesday, June 17, 2015 at 9:30 a.m., in the offices of Abrams & Lafargue, at which time your deposition is scheduled to be taken. A copy of the notice of deposition is enclosed, and you will be served with the subpoena shortly.

We wish to stress than an actual appearance by you for your deposition at the time and place stated are unnecessary provided the records referred to are furnished to us before Wednesday, June 17, 2015. We would consider the subpoena to be complied with if you will forward a copy of your records by mail at the above address. In that way, the inconvenience of an actual deposition may be avoided. We will, of course, pay the necessary charges for copying the records; and if you desire, payment in advance will be made upon your request.

Pursuant to La. R.S. 13:3715.1(B), enclosed is our affidavit of notice.
